By Jerry Saltz

In this show of paintings and drawings done over older paintings and drawings by other artists, Schuyff continues his give-and-take with history. He places strange geometric patterns, surreal biomorphic shapes, and other cartoony configurations over older art. In this way, Schuyff delves into the past and the future, good and bad taste, effrontery and admiration all at the same time. Schuyff has a great touch, a good sense of humor, and a way with color that make these little things go a long way.
